The Documentation Center of Cambodia is an independent Cambodian research institute dedicated to promoting memory and justice in Cambodia. The Documentation Center of Cambodia shares its documents and analyses with officials, scholars, and the general public in an impartial manner, seeking to contribute to an objective history of the Democratic Kampuchea (Khmer Rouge) period and to promote accountability for the abuses of that period. The Documentation Center of Cambodia is not an organ of the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC or Khmer Rouge Tribunal) or any other judicial body.
