

មជ្ឈមណ្ឌលឯកសារកម្ពុជា

DC-Cam/Calendar of Events
March-April 2010

Date/Place	Events/Significant Field Trips	Partners & Participants	Media Coverage	Brief Summary of Project
March 2010
March 3-12 Takeo	VPA staff will travel to Takeo province to deliver the ECCC's official notifications to complainants and civil parties. The VPA team will also continue to assist villagers who wish to file complaints for Case 002.	Village and commune chiefs, complainants	N/A	In the past the VPA project organized field trips to collect Victim Information Forms; the project has now shifted its activities to collecting survivor stories of petitioners. The project will produce transcripts for the interviews conducted accordingly. Additionally, the project will also facilitate meetings between Case 002 civil party members and their lawyers for the forthcoming trial at the ECCC in collaboration with the Victims Unit and deliver the Court's notification to complainants and civil parties.
March 10 Panha Cheat University	Upon request from Panha University in Phnom Penh, the CTM will organize a seminar for 200 students from the university on using the CTM website to study laws and related issues concerning	Panha Cheat University and its 200 students	Reaksmei Kampuchea News	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) is a joint project between DC-Cam and Northwestern University's School of Law and Center for International Human Rights, with support from the Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center the ECCC.			and B.J. and M.K. Pritzker Family foundation, to launch webcasts of the ECCC's live hearings. More information is available at: www.cambodiatribunal.org

March 10 ECCC	The Living Documents project will arrange an ECCC tour visit for 200 university students from Panha Cheat University. The students will also be provided the opportunity to meet with ECCC officials.	Panha Cheat University and ECCC	Reaksmei Kampuchea News	The Living Documents project is committed to providing opportunities for survivors to learn, share and discuss Khmer Rouge history and the trial proceedings of the ECCC. Villagers are invited, upon request, to attend ECCC proceedings. Upon return to their home villages these individuals hold a village-level forum to share and discuss what they have witnessed at the ECCC hearings.
March 9-11 Kampong Chhnang	The PIR team will travel to Kampong Chhang province to screen documentary films on the Khmer Rouge, hold village forms, disseminate information on ECCC, share experiences on the KR regime, and distribute Searching for the Truth magazines.	Commune officials, villagers	Reaksmei Kampuchea News	The Public Information Room (PIR) brings DC-Cam's archive to local communities with limited access to information so that they can learn about Democratic Kampuchea history, human rights abuses, and the justice-seeking process of the ECCC.
March 9-12 Kampong Chhnang	Searching for the Truth Magazine team will travel to Kampong Chhnang province to conduct interviews with provincial teachers before they begin teaching the history of Democratic Kampuchea to students. The interviews will be	8 provincial teachers	N/A	Searching for the Truth magazine publishes articles on historical documents, scholarly debates, legal issues, and family tracing related to the Khmer Rouge regime, and ECCC proceedings. Every month, 7000 magazines are distributed to members of Parliament, government officials, NGOs, used as a feature story for the magazine.			schools, and all commune offices across the country free of charge.

March 15-18 Svay Rieng	The Living Documents team will travel to Svay Rieng province to screen video footage of the ECCC hearings to villagers, followed by a discussion of the pertinent issues from the hearing.	Commune officials, villagers	Reaksmei Kampuchea News	The Living Documents project is committed to providing opportunities for survivors to learn, share and discuss Khmer Rouge history and the trial proceedings of the ECCC. Villagers are invited, upon request, to attend ECCC proceedings. Upon return to their home villages these individuals hold a village-level forum to share and discuss what they have witnessed at the ECCC hearings.
March 17-19 Kampot	Student Outreach team members will travel to Kampot province to arrange local tours of genocide sites that have been located and documented by DC-Cam.	Ministry of Education, local authorities, and 15-20 local high school students	Reaksmei Kampuchea News	The Student Outreach team travels to various provinces to organize tours for high school students and teachers to visit genocide sites located and documented by DC-Cam.
March 18 Phnom Penh	VPA will arrange first meeting in Phnom Penh for 50 civil party applicants in case 002. The meeting is to present to them the various options for their legal representation.	50 civil party applicants of Case 002	N/A	In the past the VPA project organized field trips to collect Victim Information Forms; the project has now shifted its activities to collecting survivor stories of petitioners. The project will produce transcripts for the interviews conducted accordingly.
March 23 Phnom Penh	VPA will arrange a second meeting in Phnom Penh for another 50 civil party applicants of Case 002. The meeting will present them the various options for their legal	50 civil party applicants of Case 002	N/A	Additionally, the project will also facilitate meetings between Case 002 civil party members and their lawyers for the forthcoming trial at the ECCC in collaboration with the Victims Unit and representation.			deliver the Court's notification to complainants and civil parties.

March 27-30 Siem Reap	Genocide Education Project members will travel to Siem Reap province to conduct a 3-day workshop to enhance the capacity of 180 provincial trainers to transfer teaching pedagogy on the textbook, A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) , to 1,627 local history high school teachers across the county.	Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports, 180 provincial trainers, 12 national trainers and local and international scholars.	Reaksmei Kampuchea News, BBC News and CTN	Now in its second phase, the Genocide Education Project will train Cambodia's 24 national trainers, 186 provincial trainers and ultimately 3000 local teachers on how to teach the history of Democratic Kampuchea to high school students.  DC-Cam and the Ministry of Education have agreed recently that the GEP will train 1,627 local history teachers this year.
April 2010
April 1 Phnom Penh	VPA will arrange third meeting in Phnom Penh for another 50 civil party applicants of Case 002. The meeting will present them the various options for their legal representation.	50 civil party applicants of Case 002	N/A	In the past the VPA project organized field trips to collect Victim Information Forms; the project has now shifted its activities to collecting survivor stories of petitioners. The project will produce transcripts for the interviews conducted accordingly.  Additionally, the project will also facilitate meetings between Case 002 civil party members and their lawyers for the forthcoming trial at the ECCC in collaboration with the Victims Unit and deliver the Court's notification to complainants and civil parties.

April 5-11 Stung Treng	Genocide Education Project members will travel to Stung Treng province to conduct the first round of local teacher training. The training will focus on the teaching of A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) and other subjects related to genocide, crimes against humanity, and the abuses committed under Democratic Kampuchea.	Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports, Provincial Department of Education, 6 provincial trainers, 1 national trainer, 43 local teachers from Stung Treng, Preah Vihear and Ratanak Kiri provinces, and local and international scholars.	Reaksmei Kampuchea News	Now in its second phase, the Genocide Education Project will train Cambodia's 24 national trainers, 186 provincial trainers and ultimately 3000 local teachers on how to teach the history of Democratic Kampuchea to high school students. DC-Cam and the Ministry of Education have agreed recently that the GEP will train 1,627 local history teachers this year.
April 5-11 Kampot	Genocide Education Project members will travel to Kampot province to conduct the first round of local teacher training. The training will focus on the teaching of A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) and other subjects related to genocide, crimes against humanity, and the abuses committed under Democratic Kampuchea.	Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports, Provincial Department of Education, 10 provincial trainers, 2 national trainers, 86 local teachers from Kampot and Kep provinces, and local and international scholars.	Reaksmei Kampuchea News
April 5-11 Preah Sihanouk pro.	Genocide Education Project members will travel to Preah Sihanouk province to conduct the first round of local teacher training. The training will focus on the teaching of A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) and other subjects related to genocide, crimes against humanity, and the abuses committed under Democratic	Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports, Provincial Department of Education, 5 provincial trainers, 1 national trainer, 44 local teachers from Preah Sihanouk and from Koh Kong	Reaksmei Kampuchea News

	Kampuchea.	provinces, and local and international scholars.
April 5-11 Kratie	Genocide Education Project members will travel to Kratie province to conduct the first round of local teacher training. The training will focus on the teaching of A History of Democratic Kampuchea (1975-1979) and other subjects related to genocide, crimes against humanity, and the abuses committed under Democratic Kampuchea.	Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports, Provincial Department of Education, 5 provincial trainers, 1 national trainer, 35 local teachers from Kratie and Mondul Kiri provinces, and local and international scholars.	Reaksmei Kampuchea News
April 19-23 Koh Kong	Searching for the Truth Magazine team will travel to Koh Kong province to conduct interviews with provincial teachers before they begin teaching the history of Democratic Kampuchea to students. The interviews will be used as a feature story for the magazine.	8 provincial teachers	N/ A	Searching for the Truth magazine publishes articles on historical documents, scholarly debates, legal issues, and family tracing related to the Khmer Rouge regime, and ECCC proceedings. Every month, 7000 magazines are distributed to members of Parliament, government officials, NGOs, schools, and all commune offices across the country free of charge.
April 19-27 (Various provinces)	VPA team members will travel to various provinces (based on results from the previous three meetings) to collect additional information from civil party applicants that will be submitted to the ECCC's Victims Unit.	Civil party applicants	N/ A	In the past the VPA project organized field trips to collect Victim Information Forms; the project has now shifted its activities to collecting survivor stories of petitioners. The project will produce transcripts for the interviews conducted accordingly.  Additionally, the project will also facilitate meetings between Case 002 civil party members and their lawyers for the forthcoming trial at the ECCC in collaboration with the Victims Unit and deliver the Court's notification to complainants and civil parties.

April 23 Build Bright University	Upon request from Build Bright University in Phnom Penh, the CTM will organize a seminar for 200 students from the university on using the CTM website to study laws and related issues concerning the ECCC.	Build Bright University and it's 200 students	Reaksmei Kampuchea News	The Cambodia Tribunal Monitor (CTM) is a joint project between DC-Cam and Northwestern University's School of Law and Center for International Human Rights, with support from the Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center and B.J. and M.K. Pritzker Family foundation, to launch webcasts of the ECCC's live hearings. More information is available at: www.cambodiatribunal.org
April 26-29 Pursat	The Living Documents team will travel to Pursat province to screen video footage of ECCC hearings to villagers, followed by a discussion of pertinent issues from the hearing.	Commune officials, villagers	Reaksmei Kampuchea News	The Living Documents project is committed to providing opportunities for survivors to learn, share and discuss Khmer Rouge history and the trial proceedings of the ECCC. Villagers are invited, upon request, to attend ECCC proceedings. Upon return to their home villages these individuals hold a village-level forum to share and discuss what they have witnessed at the ECCC hearings.

Prepared by Dara P. Vanthan, Deputy Director
Edited by Dacil Q. Keo, Public Affairs Officer